TELEGRAPHIC

A Mad Nig.

St. Louis, 15.—Julius Rector and wife (colored) were shown out of the Grand Opera House parquette last night and their money refunded. Rector, who is principal of a school, will institute proceedings against the proprietor.

The Fire Record.

New York, 14.—The two upper floors Levi P. Morton's old residence, 503 Fifth Avenue were gutted by fire last night. The other floors were considerably damaged by water.

Chicago, 15.—Ryan Bros.' tanning and mitten factory burned to-day. Loss, $18,000; insurance, $12,000.

Alaska.

Washington, 15.—The proposition that the delegate from Alaska be admitted, has caused some enquiry touching the population on there. Professor Elliott, of the Smithsonian Institute, puts the population at 30,000, of which 400 are whites, and 1,700 Russian half breeds, and the remainder Indians. Prospecting for minerals has not indicated any great value. The timber will be very valuable to time, also the fisheries when developed. The fur trade is the sole means of livelihood for the people. The government revenue from the fur trade was $317,000 last year.

Mining Men's Memorial.

New York, 15.—Members of the New York Mining Stock Exchange have had made an elegant piece of solid silver for presentation to Mrs. Garfield. It was forwarded to her to-day. The piece is eight by twelve inches in measurement, and is artistically chased. It is set in a rich frame of silver and ebony. The plate is a peculiar rectangular shape, the frame is embossed with a capital G, in gold, encrusted by a chaplet of green and golden palm leaves. The whole is enclosed in a case of Morocco. On the plate is engraved a copy of the resolutions passed at a meeting of the board expressive of the grief felt by the nation at the death of President Garfield.

Real Romance

New York, 14.—The Sun has the following from Syracuse, N. Y.: Thirty-one years ago William W. Chambers left his young wife in this city suddenly, and without notice, and it was supposed went to California, having manifested symptoms of the gold fever. Nothing was ever heard from him directly. Upon affirmation that a man answering his description died of ship fever crossing the isthmus of Panama, in 1864, Gage, of New York, his brother-in-law, sued the British Commercial Life Insurance Company to recover on a policy of $10,000, which it held on Chambers' life. The jury were not satisfied with the proof of death, and found a verdict for the defendants. Mrs. Chambers married Mr. Travis, of Detroit, some years ago. Mayor Hendricks has just received a letter from Bairdsdale, Australia, announcing the death of Chambers, and that he has left an estate to be disposed of.

Election Riots in Mexico.

City of Mexico, 15.—There has been no reliable returns received here from the state election at Jalisco, and it is not possible at present to indicate how the election went. This is in a great measure due to the bitter rivalry existing between the opposing political parties which culminated during election day, the 10th inst., at a number of voting places throughout the state, in bloodshed. In Guadalupe, the capital, one Jesus Barzaga, with an armed body of men, rebelled against the state government squads of his men seized the ballot boxes and destroyed them. During the melee that followed Francisco Benas, an official, was killed, and a number were wounded. A reign of terror existed during the time the mob had possession of the city, and order was not restored until late in the evening, when Barzaga, hearing a large force of federal troops were on the way to the capital to restore peace, left the city with his band, marching in a southerly direction. Reports from a number of towns through which he passed stated that he and his band had broken open the jails and liberated the prisoners in order to obtain recruits, and that a number of them had joined Jalintino, with a large body of federal troops, in pursuit of the rebels. Serious trouble is anticipated.

Capital Chatter.

Washington, 14.—It is reported that J. Bancroft Davis is to succeed Hunt as first assistant secretary of state, and that Secretary Hunt is to take Judge Davis' place on the bench of the court of claims.

It is not true that ex-Senator Paddock will be made first assistant secretary of state. Folger will appoint a New Yorker, whom he knows.

The President says he don't get time to think about anything but offices.

The Democrats object to Sherman getting the glory of the 3 per cent. funding bill, which original measure was vetoed by Hayes at Sherman's instigation.

They will oppose and attack Sherman's record savagely; then if the bill is defeated, will put through Randall's or Carlisle's bill from the House. Hill says Sherman's bill is a fraud, and is loosely drawn.

The sub-committee on expenses in the treasury will give no mercy to Sherman in their investigation.

A committee of the American Bar Association has been appointed to devise a plan for expediting the business of the supreme court, and is now in session.

Three plans are under consideration. First, the appointment of additional justices and a division of the court in sections, each section to have a certain class of cases; second, the establishment of an intermediary court of appeals in Washington, so as to lessen the number of appeals to the supreme court; third, to divide the country into districts, and establish in each district an intermediate court of appeals. The docket of the court is more than three years in arrears, and cases are constantly accumulating.

Secretary Blaine will give a reception to his successor, Secretary Frelinghuysen, on Monday evening, on which occasion the diplomatic corps will be present.

There were many callers on the President to-day, among them Frelinghuysen. The President has nominated J. Bancroft Davis, of New York, for assistant secretary of state.

Geo. S. McCracken was, to-day, appointed internal revenue gauger for the first district of California.
